About
Klaipeda University

ESTABLISHED IN 1991

Klaipeda University is a dynamic and growing multidisciplinary institution. It comprises two research institutes – the Institute of Baltic Region History and Archaeology and the Marine Research Institute – along with three faculties: Marine Technology and Natural Sciences, Social Sciences and Humanities, and Health Sciences. Additionally, the university has a Business Incubator, a Botanical Garden, Lifelong Learning and STEAM centres, and even its own fleet.

Each year, Klaipeda University educates over 3,000 students, boasts a network of more than 40,000 alumni, and employs around 850 academic and administrative staff. The university aspires to become the leading institution in the Baltic region.

In 2019, Klaipeda University joined EU-CONEXUS, an alliance of European universities fostering collaboration in education and research.

The university offers a diverse range of Bachelor's, Master's, and PhD programmes in fields such as business, health sciences, social work, chemical engineering, marine technology, natural sciences, informatics, geography, and oceanography.

City

If you had to describe the distinctive vibe of the colourful port city of Klaipėda in 3 words, CHILL, CULTURED and COSY would be a good start. With its Fachtwerk style houses and cobbled streets, Klaipėda has a totally different profile than other Lithuanian cities. Whether you're interested in history, culture or nature, Klaipėda has it all – unique architecture, spectacular theatres, multicultural cuisine and nightlife, pristine beaches, rich and fragrant pine forests – the list just goes on and on.

The best part about Klaipėda?
After a busy day at work, you can hop on a bike, and in mere seconds switch to the beach mode and admire the Baltic Sea.
